

Updated: January 18, 2012, P.W. Nel has been set free on parole: “ Welcome back to freedom, P.W. Nel! Boer prisoner ”

Pieter Willem Adriaan Nel is a patriot and a freedom fighter. He is a prisoner of war, jailed by the capitalist-communist regime of southern Africa. He was arrested in 1997 and was sentenced in 2000 to 19 years imprisonment.

P.W. Nel had the rank of Brigadier in the military structure of the AWB (Afrikaner Weerstandsbeweging). The AWB, in his news bulletin “Storm” of October-November 2001, declared that he had been unjustly condemned for things he did not commit, only for the top position he was in the movement.

Pieter Willem Nel (prison number:: 200399968) is locked up in Zonderwater.

16 Feb. 2011. Message from J.B. of the AWB: Nou net met P.W. Nel gesels uit die gevangenis. Hy stuur groete aan die res van die Boerevolk en se ons moet nooit moedeloos raak nie. English: “Now I talked with P.W. Nel from prison. He sends greetings to the Boer nation and say we should never despair.”

Do not forget about him!

Unfortunately we don't have a photo of Brig P.W. Nel. We invite those who had one to send it to us, to better remind him, and his face.

Have deprived the nation of freedom. Have imprisoned its men. We don't let that steal even our memory.

Don't forget them, and don't forget their face.

Who fighting for freedom of his nation can't be condemned.
