Helgard Muller (66 y.o.), was shot in the head on his farm Mara, 15km from Frankfort in the Orange Free State (Azania, the capitalist-communist empire in southern Africa, has changed the name of that region in "Free State". Another type of genocide...), Saturday 20 February 2011. He died on the way to a hospital in Vereeniging.

The black attackers were armed with a firearm and a stick. They waited for him after they had tied up the wheelchair-bound Mrs Muller and her housekeeper an hour earlier. They shot to him before fleeing in his pickup with R700 and cellphones which they had stolen.
